What is discrimination?

“Different treatment which makes a distinction of one person or a group of persons from others; either intentionally, by neglect, or by the action or lack of actions based on a protected class”

■ Protected Classes

- Race
- Color
- National origin
- Age
- Sex
 - Including gender identity and sexual orientation
- Disability

Types of Discrimination

- Disparate Treatment is when a person is intentionally discriminated against as a member of a protected class.
 - Example: Members of religious groups are denied service because their beliefs do not match the religious teachings of the organization that is distributing food.
- Disparate Impact is when actions that appear neutral have a negative impact on a protected class.
 - Example: A distribution site makes the Russian clients wait until the end of the day for food because interpreters are not available until late afternoon. This creates a situation where coveted food items may be unavailable to a specific group.
- Retaliation is the negative treatment of a member of a protected class in response to previous civil rights activity. This includes actions against their family and/or their associates.
 - Example: Family and friends of a client are denied food after the client filed a complaint against the agency.

Eligibility Requirements vs Discrimination

- It is not considered discrimination to exclude those who do not meet eligibility requirements for certain programs.
- For example, Congress can set age limits, and this is not age discrimination for those who do not meet those age limits.
 - CSFP

Assurances

To qualify for Federal financial assistance (Commodities), an application must be accompanied by a written assurance that the entity to receive financial assistance (Commodities) will be operated in compliance with all nondiscrimination laws, regulations, instructions, policies, and guidelines.

- A Civil Rights assurance statement must be incorporated in all agreements between:
 - Federal and State agencies (FNS Form 74)
 - State agencies and local agencies or subrecipients
 - Local agencies and subrecipients (if applicable)

FNS Instruction 113-1, Appendix C

Public Notification Requirements

- All FNS assistance programs must include a public notification system.
- The purpose of this system is to inform applicants, participants, and potentially-eligible persons of:
 - Program availability
 - Program rights and responsibilities
 - The policy of nondiscrimination
 - The procedure for filing a complaint

Public Notification

- There are civil rights requirements for notifying the public about TEFAP and CSFP
 - All materials, including websites and social media sites, must contain the USDA nondiscrimination statement
 - Convey a message of equal opportunity through photos and graphics in USDA program-related information
 - Information should be provided in different formats and languages to meet all levels of ability
 - Special efforts should be made to reach under-served groups who may qualify for services using appropriate media

Nondiscrimination Statement

- The “USDA Nondiscrimination Statement” must be included on all materials that mention USDA programs (i.e., TEFAP, CSFP, commodities)
- The statement provides contact information for anyone to file a complaint of discrimination directly with the USDA
- There is a full version and a short version of the nondiscrimination statement
- Font size for the full version may be smaller than the rest of the publication, but it must be readable
- The full version is available on the FNS website: <https://www.fns.usda.gov/civil-rights/usda-nondiscrimination-statement-other-fns-programs>

Short Version of the USDA Nondiscrimination Statement

“This institution is an equal opportunity provider”

- The short version may be used where the longer statement does not fit.
- The short version MUST be in a font size no smaller than the font size used in the publication.
- The short version may not be used in place of the long statement on client rights documents (such as an application).

“...And Justice for All” Poster

- The poster must be prominently displayed for all to view
- This poster serves as a trademark indicating the site provides a USDA program without discrimination
- The poster has contact information so that anyone has information to file a discrimination complaint directly with the USDA
- Agencies can obtain free copies of this poster by contacting your partner food bank

IOWA
HHS

Collection and Use of Data CSFP

- TEFAP is exempt from data collection
- CSFP regulations require annual reporting of client racial and ethnic data (FNS-191 Report)
 - Applicants self-declare racial/ethnic data (CSFP)
 - If an applicant refuses to provide racial/ethnic data, they are to be advised that the information will be collected based on your observation (CSFP).
- Outreach efforts can be targeted to groups not adequately represented in program participation
- Maintain all records for three years plus the current fiscal year
- All data collected must be kept secure and confidential

Complaints of Discrimination

- Everyone has the right to file a complaint of discrimination
- Every employee and volunteer must know what to do if someone wants to file a complaint
 - What is your agency's process?
- If a complaint is elevated to the State or Federal office, the maximum time to process the complaint is 180 days
- Be aware of the basis for which complaints may be filed:
 - race, color, national origin, age, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, or reprisal or retaliation
- Always attempt to resolve the complaint at the lowest level
- Never discourage someone from filing a complaint or voicing concerns of discrimination

Complaints

Complaints should include:

- Contact Information

- Name,
- Address, and
- Telephone number, or
- Other means of contacting the person alleging the discrimination.

- The location and name of the organization or office that is accused of discriminatory practices.

- The nature of the incident or action

- The Name(s), Title(s), and business address of persons who may have knowledge of the discriminatory action.

- The date(s) during which the alleged discriminatory actions occurred

- The basis for the alleged discrimination

Complaints continued

- Complaints can be provided in written, verbal or anonymous
- Try to resolve the issue if possible. If you are unable to resolve the issue:
 - Forward complaints based on race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), and disability to Civil Rights Division within five (5) calendar days of receipt.
 - Forward complaints based on age (or a combination of age and other bases) to Civil Rights Division within five (5) business days of receipt.
- Notify the food bank of any civil rights complaints you receive
- Do not discuss the civil rights complaint with others.
 - This can lead to the complainant being invertedly discriminated against because they filed a compliant.

Compliance Reviews

- State and federal governments are required to conduct reviews to determine compliance with civil rights laws, regulations, and requirements
- Cooperation with state and federal reviewers is required as a condition of receiving federal financial assistance. Remember, USDA food is considered financial assistance.
- There are three types of reviews:
 - Pre-award: a review conducted before an agency starts distributing TEFAP and/or CSFP
 - Post-award: in Iowa, this is part of your TEFAP/CSFP audit conducted by the state and your TEFAP partner food bank
 - Special compliance review: a review conducted by USDA for significant civil rights concerns.

Resolution of Noncompliance

- Corrective actions may be assigned as a result of the review process
- Agencies are required to cease inappropriate actions and institute proper procedures
- Failure to comply with civil rights requirements can result in the loss of federal assistance (commodities) from all federal sources.

Limited English Proficiency (LEP)

- Limited English Proficiency (LEP):
 - Individuals who do not speak English as their primary language and who have a limited ability to read, speak, write, or understand English because of their national origin
- Recipients of federal financial assistance (commodities) must take reasonable steps to ensure meaningful access to their programs and activities by persons with LEP.
- Failure to provide “meaningful” access to persons with LEP could be discrimination on the basis of national origin.
- Service must be provided, but there is some flexibility on methods used
- Volunteers may be used as interpreters and must maintain participant confidentiality
- There is a potential for discrimination based on national origin when accommodations are not made for LEP individuals
- Visit www.lep.gov for more information
- I Speak...Language Identification Guide
 - <https://www.dhs.gov/xlibrary/assets/crcl/crcl-i-speak-poster.pdf>

What is Meaningful Access?

- Language assistance that results in accurate, timely, and effective communication at no cost to the LEP individual.
- For LEP individuals, meaningful access denotes access that is not significantly restricted, delayed, or inferior as compared to programs or activities provided to English proficient individuals.

LEP and Program Access

Factors included in assuring “meaningful” access

- The number or proportion of LEP people eligible to be served or likely to be encounter by the program
- The frequency with which LEP individuals come in contact with the program
- The resources available to the recipient

LEP and Program Access Continued

- Post multilingual notices of free interpretation services
- Utilize qualified and competent interpreters and translators
- Train frontline staff regarding how to provide LEP populations with meaningful access
- Language services
 - Applicants and participants cannot be asked to bring their own interpreters
 - Children should NOT be used as interpreters
- Examples of language services
 - Bilingual staff
 - Qualified and competent telephonic interpreters
 - Qualified and competent interpreters
 - Qualified and competent translators
 - Community organizations with qualified and competent volunteer interpreters

Individuals with Disabilities

- A reasonable accommodation is a change in rules, policies, practices, or services so that a person with a disability will have an equal opportunity to apply for and receive TEFAP and/or CSFP food
 - The agency should do everything they can to assist a person with disabilities
 - The agency is not required to make changes that would fundamentally alter the program or create an undue financial and administrative burden
 - Proxy distribution must be allowed
 - Reasonable accommodations may be necessary at all stages of the process, including application, receipt of benefits, and client notification

Accommodations

- Is your distribution site accessible? Consider the parking lot, entrances, exits, hallways, elevators, and restrooms
- Do you have access to sign language interpreters or interpreters for non-English languages?
- Do you have signage and paperwork in Braille or in non-English languages?
- Do you allow service animals in your facility?
 - Therapy animals are not services animals.
 - It is up to your agency is you allow therapy animals into your facility.
- Do you provide home delivery?

What is Reasonable

When do I have to translate TEFAP/CSFP applications into another language or place a ramp to gain entry to the building?

- Consider the following factors to help make that decision. Keep in mind that shortage of resources does not eliminate meeting this requirement except in cases of extreme hardship.
 - What is the percentage of disabled/LEP persons being served?
 - What is the percentage of disabled/LEP persons in the eligible local population?
 - What is the frequency of disabled/LEP persons contact with program?
 - How vital is the service to the clients?
 - What are the agency's available resources and cost of services?

Equal Opportunity for Religious Organizations

- USDA Regulations (7 CFR 16) require equal opportunity for Faith Based Organizations (FBO's) and Community Based Organizations (CBO's)
- Discrimination is prohibited on the basis of religion or religious belief or character
- FBOs can use facilities for USDA food distribution without removing religious art or symbols
- Religious organizations may not use USDA funds or supplies to support worship, religious instruction, or proselytization (attempt to convert)
- Religious schools can consider religion in admission practices and required curriculum

Religious or Faith-Based Organizations

TEFAP providers must:

- Post written notice in a prominent place
- Refer a participant to an alternate provider if available
- Ensure the participant has no objection to the alternate provider

Obtain the written notice and referral letter from your food bank

Conflict Resolution

- Treat others the way they want to be treated or at least be aware of what that is
- Have a written and posted policy for dealing with unacceptable behavior and conflicts
- Remain calm
- Listen and really hear the other person
- Ask questions to gather information
- Be empathetic
- Explain situation (rules, expectations)
- Get help, especially if threats or if violence is possible

Customer Service

- Treat everyone with dignity and respect and make people feel welcomed
- Be patient and polite
- Make sure all clients receive equal treatment and service
 - Equal does not mean identical
 - For example, one participant receives corn, another receives green beans
 - Staff or volunteers who need services should follow the same rules as clients
- Do not do special favors for a client if you are not prepared to do the same favor for all clients
 - Disabilities and language needs are not considered special favors since they are required

Customer Service continued

- Smile
- Know and be able to explain policy and rules that must be followed
- Don't be afraid to apologize
- Do not treat people differently based on race, color, national origin, age, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), or disability
- Do not impose policies that unfairly impact certain groups
- Do not retaliate against anyone who files a complaint (or their family, friends or employees who cooperate with a civil right investigation)

Customer Service Final Thoughts

In order to minimize the risk of a civil rights discrimination complaint, ask yourself the following questions each time an applicant and/or participant comes to your program:

- Am I treating this person in the same manner as I treat others?
- Have I clearly explained to this person what information I need to make a determination on the application?
- Have I given this person the opportunity to clarify all relevant factors or inconsistencies?
- Have I provided the person the information they need to make necessary decisions?
- Am I treating this person as I would wish to be treated?

Civil Rights Final Steps

- Be sure to sign the Civil Rights Training Log after you have participated in this training
- Talk to your food bank if you have questions about the information included in this training
- Thank you for completing your annual Civil Rights training
