

The Tale of Three Trees

Written by Angela Elwell Hunt

Illustrated by Tim Jonke

1. The trees each had a dream of what they wanted to be when they grew up. What were those dreams? What do you want to be when you grow up?
2. The trees didn't think that they had gotten their dreams when they first were turned into something else. The first tree wanted to be a treasure chest, but instead held the greatest treasure ever! God had a plan for each of the trees. Do you think that God has a plan for you? Read Jeremiah 29:11.
3. These three trees waited for God's plan and ended up being some of the most important trees in the world. What do you think will happen for you if you wait for God's plan?
