Matthew 26: 47-51

While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, arrived; with him was a large crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief of priests and the elders of the people . Now the betrayer had given them a sign saying, The one I will kiss is the man; arrest him.” At once he came up to Jesus said “Greetings Rabbi” an kissed him. Jesus said to him, “friend do what you are here to do.” They cam and laid hands on him and arrested him.

John 18:15-18

Simon, Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Since that disciple was known to the High Priest he went with Jesus to the courtyard of the High Priest but Peter was standing outside at the gate. So the other disciple, who was known to the High Priest went out, spoke to the woman who guarded the gate and brought Peter in. The woman said to Peter, “You are not also one of his disciples are you?” He said “I am not.”

John 18: 33-38

Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, and asked him are you the king of the jews? Jesus answered do you ask this own your own or did the others tell you about me? Pilate replied I am not a jew am I? Your own nation and the chief of priests have handed you over to me. What have you done? Jesus answered my kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world then my followers would e fighting to keep me from being handed over to the jews. But as it is my kingdom is not from here. Pilate asked him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king, for this I was born, and for this I came to the world to testify the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice. Pilate asked him, what is the truth.

John 18: 39-40

After he said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them I find no case against him. But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. Do you want me to release for you the king of the Jews? They shout-ed in reply, Not this man but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a bandit.

Matthew 27: 32-37

As they went out they came upon a man from Cyrene named Simon; they compelled this man to carry his cross. And when they came to a place called Golgotha they offered him wine to drink, mixed with gall. But when he tasted it he would not drink it. And when they had crucified him, they divided his clothes among themselves by casting lots. Then they sat down there and kept watch over him. Over his head they put the charge over him which read this is Jesus King of the Jews.
